

TO YOUR CORNERS

Everything Ready for Tonight's Boxing.

Honolulu will be treated to a second exhibition of boxing at the Orpheum tonight, when as before a series of interesting set-tos will be conducted under the able superintendence of "Denver" Ed Smith.

The boxing end of the program will be as follows:

Jack Mansfield vs. "Denver" Ed Smith.

Sidney Jackson vs. "Spider" Jackson.

Jack Andrews vs. Jack Comisky.

Ulysses Harris vs. "Kid" Atkins.

Joe Decker vs. Joe Gonsalves.

Jack Hoctor vs. Jack Weeday.

Lon Agnew vs. Jimmy Fox.

There will also be a series of wrestling bouts between some of Honolulu's Japanese experts in this particular branch of athletics. Among those booked to appear on the mat are: Nagasaki, Yokohama, Hatsuugi and Wagraminado. This quartette appeared at the Orpheum last week and made a very favorable impression by their hard, earnest work.

The bell will ring for the first number on the program at 8 o'clock.

The boxing contests will be of four rounds' duration, with the exception of the Fox-Agnew match, in which the limit has been extended to six rounds. No referee in the latter event has yet been chosen, but it is more than probable that "Denver" Ed himself will go into the ring with the two men.

The men engaged in the different bouts have done quite a lot of training, and as they include the best boxers in Honolulu, the exhibition should be well worth seeing.

Jack Mansfield, who is to box with Smith, is a big longshoreman with a record of several battles to his credit. He is said to be a good man, and one who can stand the "gaff." "Denver" Ed should prove a pretty good trial horse for him.

Jack Andrews is a husky local expression, and his opponent, Jack Comisky, is the artilleryman who played center rush for the Camp McKinley football team last season with so much success.

Ulysses Harris, the colored boy who is to box "Kid" Atkins, has not been inside the ropes since Jack McDonald trimmed his wings at Hilo a year ago. He has taken care of himself since then and is anxious to redeem himself in the eyes of the local sporting fraternity. Harris has a pretty way of boxing and should show tonight whether he is cut out for the game or not.

Joe Decker, who will put 'em on with "Australian" Martin Denny, has been keeping things moving. He has obtained one or two very good decisions against local lads and is a boxer of much promise. Gonsalves is a quick, aggressive fellow and withal a hard hitter. Smith taught him all he knows.

Jack Hoctor is another artilleryman who can go some when he feels like it. His partner in the waltz tonight, Jack Weeday, has won an enviable name among professional boxers on the mainland, where he is known as "the man with the iron jaw."

Lon Agnew and Jimmy Fox will furnish the star stunt of the evening and both have trained long and faithfully in anticipation of their meeting. Agnew has had a "Frisco" boy named Green for his sparring partner and Ulysses Harris has been working with Fox. Both men are in fine condition, the result of plenty of judicious road-work and careful living.

Fox is undoubtedly the cleverest boxer of the two and his stock is sure to rise during the initial rounds of the contest. Agnew can take an awful lot of punishment, however, and is liable to bide his time and not get going until the fourth or fifth round, when the chances are that he will come along with a wet sheet and win out.

CHILD'S MEDICINE—WHY?

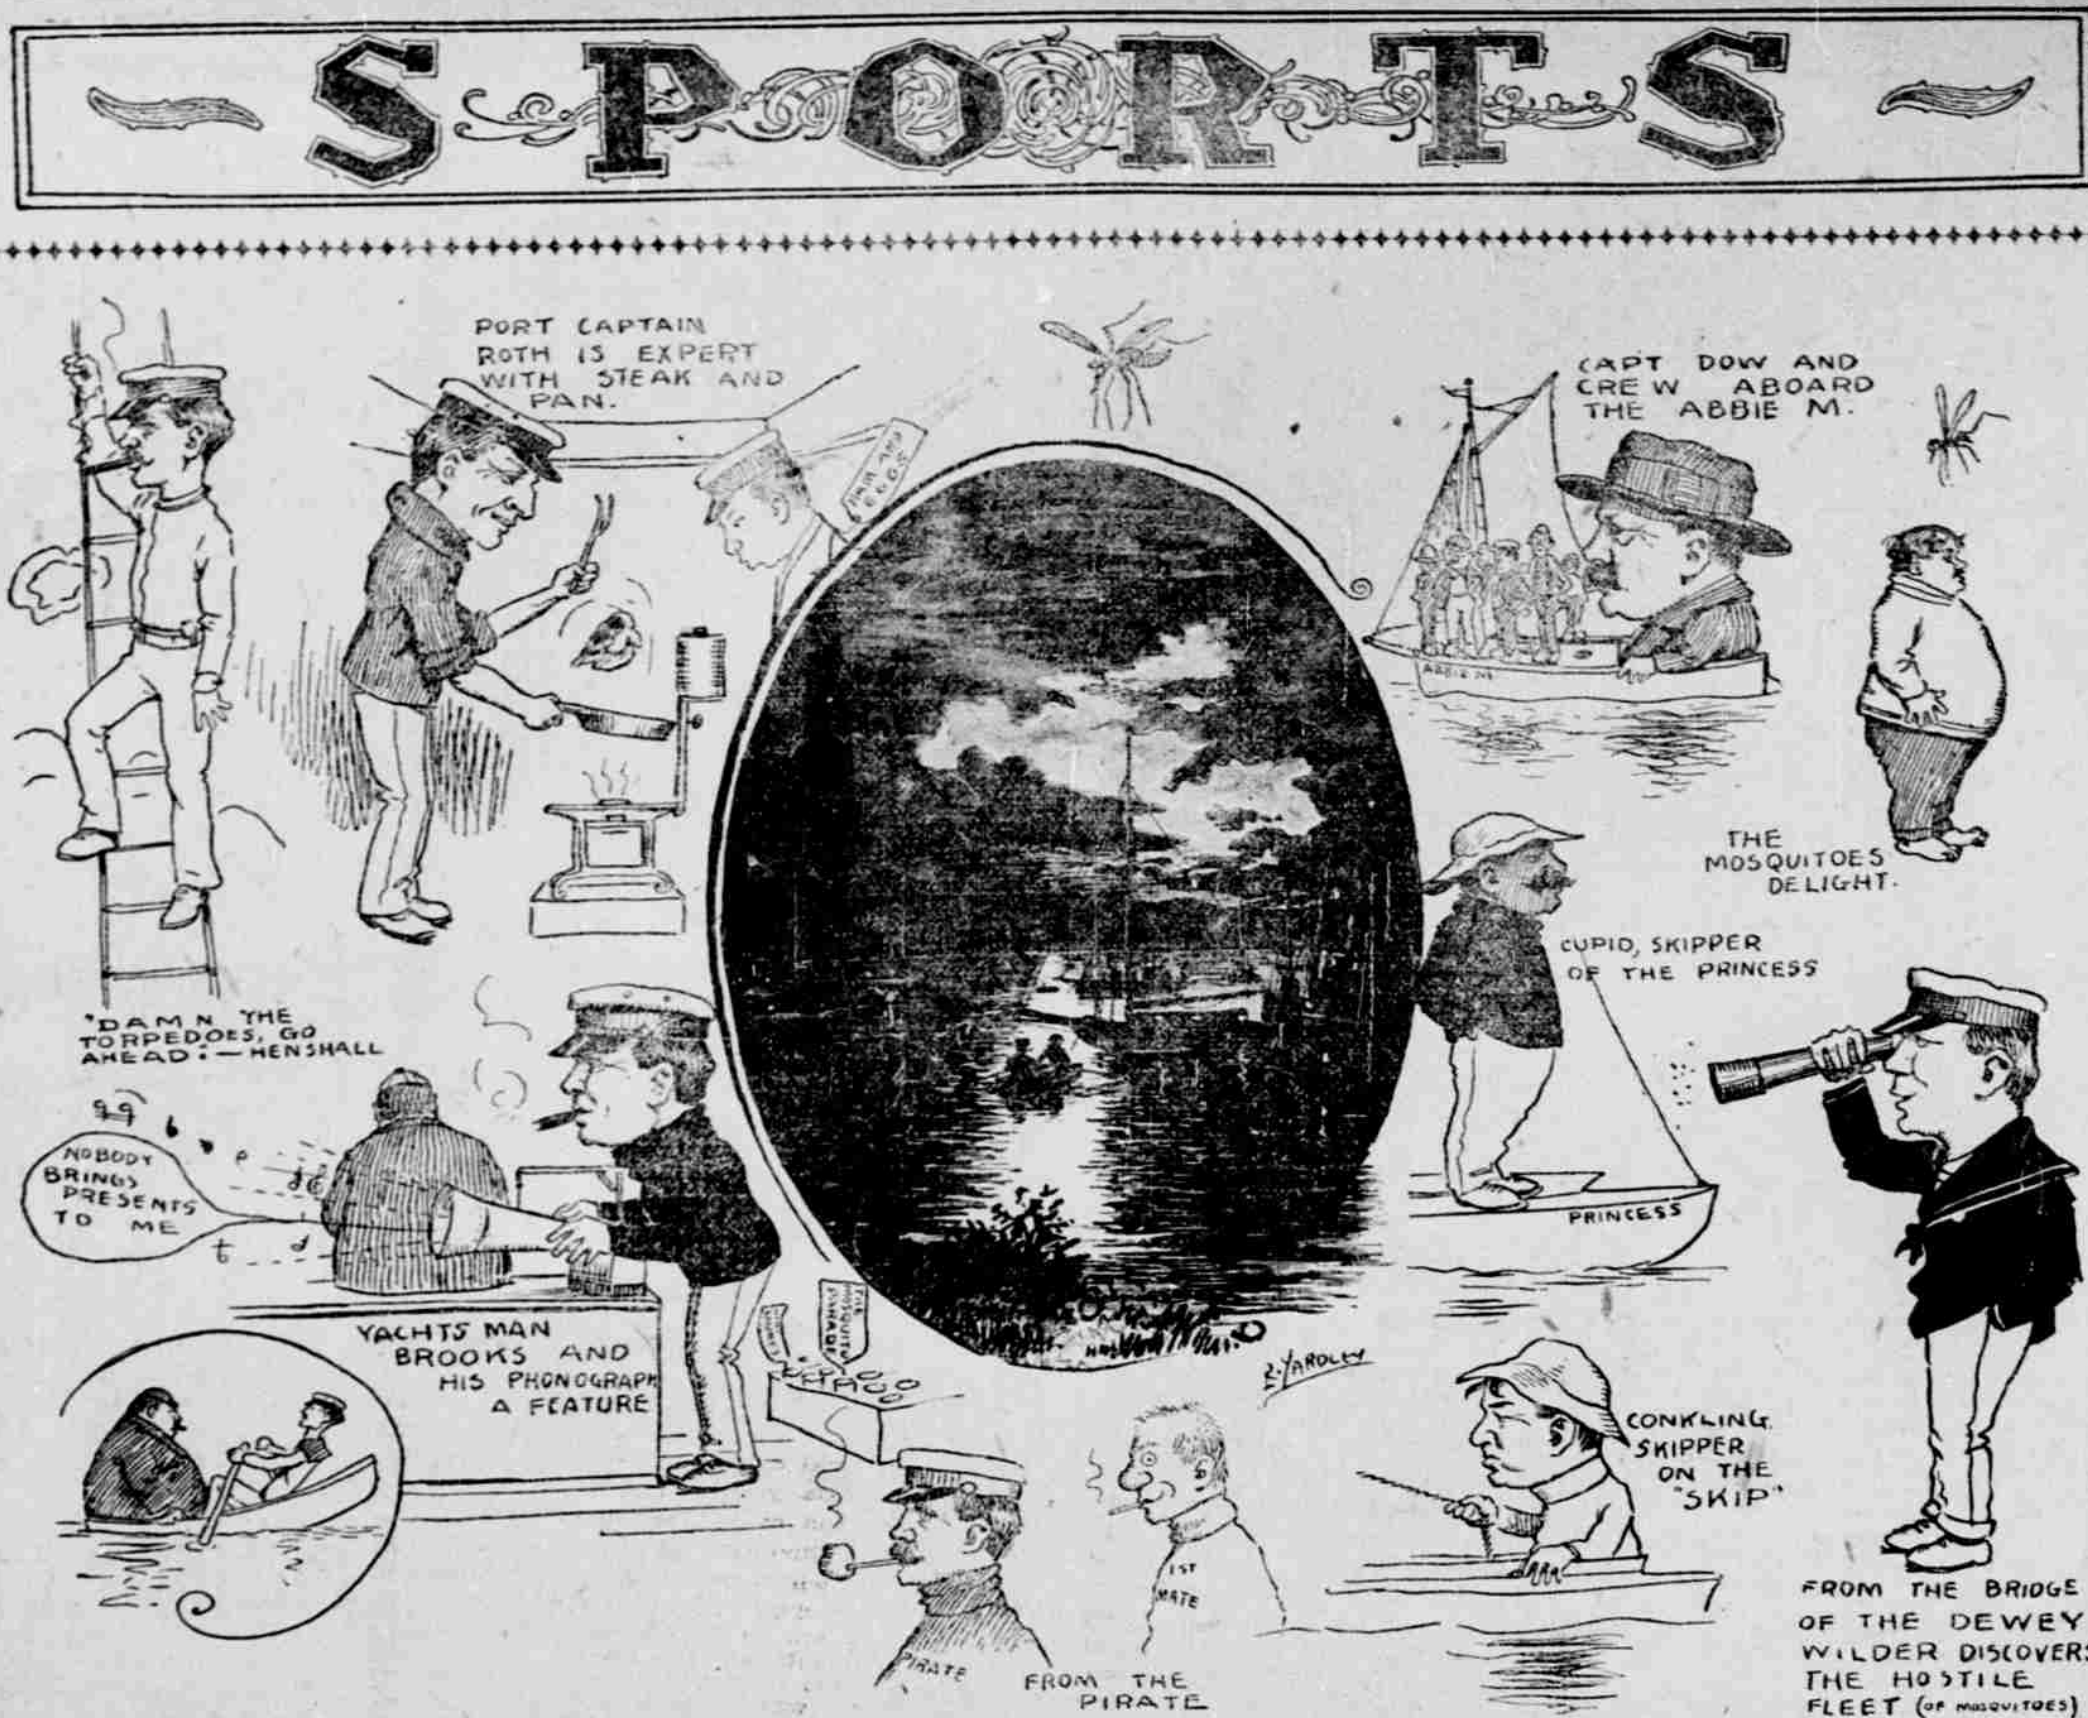

Because Scott's Emulsion relieves such an extraordinary variety of children's diseases all the way from slight colds to the serious hip disease.

Because Scott's Emulsion is as harmless as milk. Well borne even by the delicate stomachs of babies.

Because children respond so quickly to its action. A medicine peculiarly suited to their sensitive nature. It is wonderful how rapidly delicate children improve in every way while taking Scott's Emulsion.

Because children like the taste. Most of them like Scott's Emulsion at once. The rest soon learn to like it. Little daily doses bring the results.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

The Association football league may come to a successful termination at Makiki this afternoon when the protested game between the Honolulu and the Maile Hima will be replayed. The game will start at 4:15 o'clock.

The original game was won by the Honolulu, but a protest was filed on the ground that the winners had played an ineligible man. The protest was sustained.

CLAIM BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Maile Hima Athletic Club desire to give notice that, inasmuch as the challenge of their basketball team, which was published in the local papers, has failed to elicit any response from other teams, and the period allowed for acceptance having expired, they hereby claim the basketball championship of Honolulu for the season of 1902 by default.

POLO SEASON DRAWS TO CLOSE

Three teams will play polo at Kapiolani Park this afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock. The Reds will play two periods with a third team, and the Blues will do likewise. The teams will be made up as follows:

Reds—Potter 1, Shingle 2, Dillingham 3 and Atkinson back.
Blues—Judd 1, Hancock 2, Angus 3 and Dole back.
Third Team—Carter 1, Waterhouse 2, Dickey 3 and Copp back.

On March 15 the Reds and Blues will play a game at Kapiolani Park for the benefit of the M. Kinley memorial fund. This will be the final game of the polo season, which will reopen in August.

In the memorial game the Polo Association rules will govern, and there will be four periods of fifteen minutes each, actual play, with two minutes after each goal and seven minutes' interval between periods.

Busy Times in the Gymnasium at Present.

The Evening Class and the Business Men indoor baseball teams will play for the season's championship this evening in the gymnasium of the Young Men's Christian Association, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. The Maile Hima and the other two teams tied for first place at the end of the league series of games, each having won two games and lost one. The Maile Hima refused to take part in the play-off, and accordingly forfeit their claim to the championship. Tonight's line-up will be as follows:

Business Men.	Evening Class.
Geo. Waterhouse, Catcher.	Jim Gorman, Pitcher.
Frank Atherton, First Base.	Mark Johnston, First Base.
Fred Berger, Second Base.	Carl Taylor, Second Base.
John Waterhouse, Third Base.	E. M. Cheatham, Third Base.
A. T. Brock, Shortstop.	Clarence Girvin, Shortstop.
E. B. Clarke, Right Field.	W. F. Dunn, Right Field.
C. H. Cooke, Left Field.	R. Pierson, Left Field.
	John Templeton, Manager.

The Evening Class team is playing one man, and the Business Men, two men short. C. A. Elston and Fred Young will officiate as umpires, and G. P. Card as scorer.

The first round of the Young Men's Christian Association handball tournament has been declared closed, and all who have not played off their games will now be out of the competition. The only game played during the week resulted in E. S. Muckley defeating K. K. Gitt, 21-15. The second round of the tournament will commence on Monday.

The defaulters in the first round are: A. M. Keoho vs. A. Y. Sheu, W. C. Crook vs. Carl Taylor, R. J. Allen vs. Frank Darling, and Herman Mieth vs. Thomas Dolan.

Following are the results of the first round:

A. E. Lutz won from C. Marques, by default.
O. Oss defeated J. Dollinger, 21-14.
W. Kerr defeated W. Larue, 21-14.
A. Blackman won from H. Pierce, by default.
J. O. Hart defeated F. J. Merry, 21-10, 21-18.
Tom Evans defeated F. B. Lubeck, 21-14, 21-10.
M. Johnson defeated George Dyson, 21-8, 21-16.
P. Pereira defeated Luther Evans, 21-7, 21-11.

The Young Men's Christian Association field day contingent have not yet got down to hard work. This afternoon at 4 o'clock they will meet at the Panama Preparatory School grounds for preliminary practice, at which time some of the intending candidates for the team will have an informal try-out. The jumping standards have been fixed and places prepared for putting the shot and throwing the discus.

Only a twenty yards straight sprint can be obtained at the grounds, but that will suffice for practicing starts and stride work; longer work will have to be done on an extemporized circular track. Practice will take place at the grounds every afternoon next week, and Professor Young will be present four times a week for coaching purposes. On afternoons when he is busy with his gymnasium classes, M. A. Cheek will take his place.

It is doubtful if the association will take up basketball until after the field day is over, so many athletes are devoting all their spare time to preparing for the coming athletic meet.

SOLDIERS WILL RUN AND JUMP

The artillery at Camp McKinley have notified W. W. Harris, the chairman of the Boys' Brigade Athletic Committee, that they desire to participate in the coming field day to be held a month from today at Kapiolani Park. A letter received by Mr. Harris stated that an athletic association had been formed in the camp and asked for full particulars of the events and conditions. If the soldiers elect to enter a team and put in a month of good, hard training, they should make a very creditable showing when the time comes.
